MMF tri-annual conference elects new leaders

STELLALANDER-VRYBURG: A new leadership team was inaugurated at the tri-annual elective conference and 24th anniversary celebration of the Mahikeng Ministers Fellowship (MMF), held recently at the Mocoseng Sundown Resort.

The newly elected committee has been tasked with intensifying membership renewal and recruitment, laying the foundation for the establishment of District and Provincial structures that will ultimately form the National Ministers Fellowship (NMF). Re-elected for a third term as Chairperson, Pastor Dr. Moss Tlang emphasized the importance of a constitutional review process, which will be spearheaded by newly formed working committees. "This process will facilitate consultative engagements with Christian leaders from other provinces who share our vision—to unite the body of Christ and impact families and communities through integrity, accountability, discipleship, and ethical leadership," he stated. Dr. Tlang noted that the realignment process is expected to be completed within six months. "Though challenging, we have the experience, skills, and networks to achieve this. Through prayer, dependence on God, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will build a strong organization that will make a lasting impact on our nation and beyond," he added. Among the outgoing committee's key achievements was the launch of the MMF Youth Forum, which is set to be further developed into a Youth Commission. Delivering a virtual message of support, Pastor Bert Pretorius, President of the South African Community of Faith-Based Fraternalists (SACOFF), encouraged church leaders to remain steadfast in their mission. "We are trusting God for many lives to be transformed this year. Raising the next generation is not the government's responsibility, but the church's. Where there are orphans, we must step in to make a difference," he urged. Meanwhile, Father Smangaliso Mkhathshwa, National Chairperson of the Moral Regeneration Movement (MRM), commended MMF for positioning the church as an integral part of society. "Pastors play a crucial role in rekindling the moral fibre of our nation. The church must be the salt of the earth, not a light hidden under a bushel," he said. The newly elected MMF Committee consists of: Chairperson: Pastor Dr. Moss Tlang, Deputy Chairperson: Pastor Piet Tlhabanyane, Secretary: Pastor Lesiba Kgwele, Deputy Secretary: Pastor Dr. Hessie Wessie, Treasurer: Pastor Cassius Mpya and Additional Members: Prophetess Letta Bogatsu and Bishop Zola Mathoko. With strong leadership in place, MMF is poised to expand its influence beyond Mahikeng, strengthening its presence at both provincial and national levels.

Four men convicted for the brutal murder of two SAPS members

STELLALANDER-MAREETSANE: The Mafikeng High Court has convicted four men for the brutal murder of two South African Police Service (SAPS) officials, as well as multiple other charges.

The accused, Benjamin Kerneels Jacobs (45), Gaorekwe Jeremiah Mongale (28), Rapula George Keaikitse (27), and Mathews Modukanele (23), were found guilty on charges including theft of stock, robbery with aggravating circumstances, two counts of kidnapping, two counts of murder, defeating the ends of justice, malicious damage to property, and unlawful possession of firearms and ammunition. The convictions stem from a harrowing incident that occurred on 26 July 2021. Two SAPS members from Mareetsane police station stopped a vehicle carrying 18 goats. The occupants of the vehicle failed to produce a valid permit for transporting the livestock, and the officials instructed them to follow them to the police station. However, the suspects' vehicle experienced mechanical issues along the way, and they requested assistance from the officers. As one officer attempted to secure a tow rope, the suspects ambushed both officers with hammers, restrained them with a rope, and forced them into the back of the police van. Authorities later discovered the burnt remains of the police vehicle at Mosita Wildlife farm near Vryburg, with the bodies of the two officers inside, burnt beyond recognition. The vehicle was confirmed to be the SAPS bakkie used by the deceased officers. Following a swift investigation, three of the accused were arrested at a residence in Logageng, where a Z88 pistol with nine live rounds was recovered from under a mattress. A fifth accused, who was 16 years old at the time of the incident, turned state witness and provided crucial testimony to the prosecution. As a result, the charges against him were withdrawn. It was revealed that the first accused was the father of the state witness. All four accused pleaded not guilty, but the court convicted them based on overwhelming evidence presented during the trial. The case has been adjourned to 7 March 2025 for sentencing, with all accused remaining in custody until then. This case has sent a strong message about the severity of crimes committed against law enforcement officers.

STELLALANDER-VRYBURG: Tydens die Vryburg-VLV se byeenkoms, Woensdag, 19 Februarie, het kenners in velsorg en grimering belangrike inligting gedeel. Jacoline Fouché het die belangrikheid van 'n gesonde vel beklemtoon.

Fouché verduidelik dat indien die buitenste vellaag beskadig word, skadelike bakterieë maklik die vel kan binnedring. Om dit te voorkom, gebruik Jacoline mikro-naaldbehandeling of chemiese afskilfering om die vel te vernuwe en te herstel. Hannemie Stols, 'n kenner in grimering, beveel die gebruik van 'n onderlaag met sonfaktor aan om die vel teen sonskade te beskerm. Stols adviseer ook dat grimering 'n belangrike rol speel, veral vir spesiale geleenthede. Sy begin dikwels deur wenkbroue liggies donkerder te maak en oogskadu in verskillende skakerings in die buitenste hoek van die oog toe te pas. Wangbene word beklemtoon om 'n meer gedefinieerde voorkoms te gee, terwyl maskara 'n daaglikse moet is. "Indien 'n vrou mooi lyk, voel sy ook goed," sê sy. In ander nuus het Griselda Pretorius van Vryburg-VLV haar 10-jaar lidmaatskaptoeëkenning van Carien van Niekerk ontvang, wat haar langtermyn betrokkenheid by die organisasie erken.

Klagtes van rioolsaak nou in Groen Skerpioene se hande

STELLALANDER-JAN KEMPDRORP: Die klagtes wat AfriForum se Vaalharts-tak op 29 Oktober verlede jaar by die Suid-Afrikaanse Polisie diens (SAPD) teen die munisipale bestuurder van die Phokwane Plaaslike Munisipaliteit aanhangig gemaak het, is nou aan die Groen Skerpioene oorhandig.

Hierdie aksie volg na die tak se waarnemings tydens hul blou-en-groendruppelprojek, waarin hulle die toestand van die rioolaanleg in Jan Kempdorp ondersoek het. Die rioolaanleg is al geruime tyd buite werking, wat daartoe lei dat onbehandelde riool in die dorp inloop, wat nie net 'n gesondheidsrisiko vir die inwoners inhou nie, maar ook die omgewing besoedel. "Ons verwelkom hierdie beslissende optrede en vertrou dat die gespesialiseerde eenheid die saak deeglik sal ondersoek en verseker dat regstellende maatreëls stiptelik ingestel sal word om die gemeenskap en omgewing te beskerm," sê Japie Saunders, voorsitter van AfriForum se Vaalharts-tak. "AfriForum bly daartoe verbind om die gesondheid en veiligheid van ons gemeenskappe en die integriteit van ons natuurlike hulpbronne te beskerm. Ons sal voortgaan om die situasie noukeurig te monitor en met alle relevante owerhede saam te werk om 'n volhoubare oplossing te verseker," voeg Lize-Mari Smit, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir die Karoo, by.

Life imprisonment for man who murdered his uncle

STELLALANDER-TAUNG: Retshepoane Gladwin Kepi (22), from Manokwane village, was sentenced to life imprisonment by the Taung Regional Court for the murder of his 68-year-old paternal uncle, Marongoa Victor Kepi.

Kepi was convicted of one count of murder following the brutal killing that took place at the deceased's home in Maphoitsile village on 28 January 2024. According to the details presented in court, Kepi, along with two friends, visited his uncle's house under the pretext that the deceased had agreed to lend him a car. Upon arriving at the home, one of the friends stayed outside, while Kepi and the other friend entered the house. Inside, they found the deceased in the bedroom, with his son sitting in the lounge. Kepi confronted his uncle, demanding the car keys. When the deceased refused, a violent scuffle ensued, during which Kepi pulled out an okapi knife and stabbed his uncle four times in front of his friend and the deceased's son.

The court heard details of the vicious attack, which underscored the vulnerability of the elderly victim. After the stabbing, Kepi fled the scene, leaving his uncle's lifeless body behind. The friend and the deceased's son ran to seek help, and a case of murder was opened. Kepi was arrested on 9 February 2024 and has remained in custody since. During the trial, he pleaded not guilty to the charges.

However, his friends testified as state witnesses, explaining that they had believed his claim that the deceased had agreed to lend him the car. State Prosecutor Rebaona Makgopa called for a harsh sentence, stressing the vulnerability of the elderly victim and the severity of the crime. She pointed out the accused's lack of remorse for his actions.

The court found no compelling circumstances to reduce the sentence and sentenced Kepi to life imprisonment. Magistrate Bhuti Zulu delivered the sentence, reinforcing the gravity of the crime. Dr. Rachel Makhari, the Director of Public Prosecutions in the North West, commended the work of the investigative and prosecutorial teams, stating, "This sentence sends a strong message that justice will prevail, and those who commit such heinous crimes will face the full might of the law."

Two convicted in separate murder cases

STELLALANDER-PIET PLESSIS: Justice was served in two unrelated murder cases after the Ganyesa Regional Court and the Taung Magistrates' Court handed down lengthy sentences to the accused.

On 28 August 2022, a suspected murder was reported to the Piet Plessis police, after a farm owner discovered the motionless body of a 24-year-old woman. The farm owner identified the deceased as the girlfriend of one of her employees. Upon receiving the report, the police immediately launched a search for the woman's boyfriend for questioning. The then 34-year-old suspect was found hiding in a bathroom on the farm, wearing blood-stained pants. A further search of his residence led to the discovery of additional blood-stained clothing. The suspect, Ngaru Sekgotshane, was arrested, and his clothes were sent for forensic testing. Sekgotshane made his first appearance in the Ganyesa Magistrates' Court, where bail was denied. He remained in custody throughout his trial. A forensic science report later confirmed his involvement in the murder. After a lengthy trial, the 37-year-old Sekgotshane was found guilty on 20 February 2025 and sentenced to 15 years of direct imprisonment by the Ganyesa Regional Court.

In an unrelated case, the Taung Police arrested a 22-year-old male on Friday, 9 February 2024, for murder. Court evidence revealed that on Sunday, 28 January 2024, the suspect and two accomplices entered the residence of a 68-year-old man, attempting to steal his motor vehicle. When the elderly man refused to hand over the keys, he was stabbed during the altercation. The suspects fled the scene, leaving the victim critically injured. A neighbor assisted in transporting the victim to a local hospital before he was transferred to Tshepong Hospital due to the severity of his injuries. Unfortunately, on Sunday, 4 February 2024, the victim succumbed to his wounds. Following an investigation, the suspect, Retshepoane Kepi, was traced and arrested. He made his first court appearance on Monday, 12 February 2024, in the Taung Magistrates' Court. Bail was denied, and he was remanded in custody until his conviction. On 13 February 2025, Kepi was found guilty, and on 19 February 2025, he was sentenced as follows: Count 1 (Murder): Life imprisonment and Count 2 (Assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm): Five years imprisonment. During the investigation, Kepi was also linked to another case of assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm, which occurred on Friday, 2 February 2024. He was found guilty and sentenced to an additional three years imprisonment. The court ruled that all sentences would run concurrently. The Acting District Commissioner, Colonel Thamsanqa Ntlati, commended the investigators and prosecution teams for their diligent work in ensuring justice was served. He emphasized the importance of such convictions in maintaining law and order within the community.

Police Sergeant arrested for fraud and defeating the ends of justice

STELLALANDER-DELAREYVILLE: The Acting Provincial Commissioner of North West, Major General Patrick Asaneng, has welcomed the arrest of Sergeant Tebogo Galetlhobogwe (45), who appeared in the Delareyville Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 18 February 2025, on charges of fraud and defeating the ends of justice.

Galetlhobogwe, a detective, was arrested after allegedly attempting to release a detainee charged with possession of drugs. He reportedly tried to persuade a prosecutor to sign a R500 admission of guilt fine document. However, the prosecutor, upon reviewing the charge sheet, discovered that the case had been postponed to 25 November 2024 for a bail application. Undeterred, Galetlhobogwe allegedly then submitted the documents to the court clerk and paid a R100 admission of guilt fine in an effort to secure the suspect's release. The prosecutor, however, flagged the irregularity and promptly registered a case before the suspect could be released. The Provincial Anti-Corruption Unit investigated the matter, leading to a decision by the Director of Public Prosecution (DPP) to proceed with the arrest. Galetlhobogwe was granted R2 000 bail and is set to reappear in court on Friday, 4 April 2025. Major General Asaneng condemned the officer's actions, calling them unprofessional, dishonest, and damaging to the integrity of the police service. He assured that such misconduct would not go unpunished and commended the police and prosecution for their joint efforts in combating corruption. Investigations, including an internal disciplinary process under SAPS regulations, are ongoing.

Vrou sterf na vriend haar glo met paraffien gooi en brand

STELLALANDER-VRYBURG: Vrydagaand, 14 Februarie 2025, het Vryburg polisie gereageer op 'n tragiese voorval in 'n sinkhuis in die Monoto Mosweu informele nedersetting in Colridge, Vryburg, waar die 43-jarige Sue-Ellen Danster glo deur haar vriend met paraffien gegooi en daarna aan die brand gestee is.

Volgens inligting wat ontvang is, het die vriend paraffien oor Danster gegiet en haar aan die brand gestee. Inligting lei verder dat die grusame toneel voor Danster se kinders afgespeel het, wat glo in die hoek van die sinkhuis was, en gesien het hoe hulle ma se klere van haar liggaam afskeur word. Die vriend het na bewering toe haar klere aan die brand gestee en paraffien oor haar liggaam gegiet voordat hy haar met 'n brandende kers aan die brand gestee het. Die polisie het Danster met erge brandwonde aangetref. Haar vriend het ook brandwonde tydens die voorval opgedoen. Beide individue is na die hospitaal geneem vir behandeling. Aanvanklik is 'n saak van poging tot moord geopen, maar nadat Danster Donderdag, 20 Februarie dood is weens die ernstige brandwonde wat sy opgedoen het, ondersoek die polisie nou 'n aanklag van moord. Die gemeenskap is diep geskok deur die voorval en die polisie ondersoek duur voort.

Manhunt launched after police officer's vehicle torched

STELLALANDER-TAUNG: Police in Taung have launched a manhunt after a police officer's private vehicle, a Toyota RunX, was allegedly torched in the early hours of Thursday morning, 20 February 2025, at his residence in Ditshilong village, Taung.

Reports suggest that a 41-year-old Sergeant and his family were asleep when they were woken by the sound of his vehicle's alarm. The officer went outside to investigate but tragically discovered his vehicle engulfed in flames. Police and Fire Brigades were called to the scene immediately. Fortunately, neither the officer nor his family members sustained any injuries. A case of malicious damage to property was opened, and investigations into the matter are ongoing. The Acting Provincial Commissioner of North West, Major General Patrick Asaneng, strongly condemned the incident, stating that the police will not rest until the perpetrator(s) are arrested.

Year-on-year, unemployment has surged by 2.3%, while the expanded unemployment rate climbed by 1.3%, a clear indicator that economic opportunities are shrinking under the current administration.

desperation escalate. The ANC's failure to create jobs and stimulate growth has left North West in a deepening crisis. The DA has consistently advocated for policies that attract investment, improve infrastructure, and create an enabling environment for small businesses to thrive, yet these proposals are ignored by a provincial government more focused on self-enrichment than service delivery.

Despite a population growth of 1.3% year-on-year, employment ratios continue to plummet, with the Employed-to-Population Ratio dropping by 0.8% in the last quarter alone. This means fewer people are working to sustain their families, while poverty and

With Premier Lazarus Mokgosi set to deliver the State of the Province Address (SOPA) on 27 February, the DA urge him to use this opportunity to present real, actionable solutions to the unemployment crisis. The people of North West cannot afford another speech filled with empty promises and excuses.

skoolsaal verskuif, waar aanhangers steeds 'n vermaaklike aand beleef het. Saterdag, 22 Februarie, het organiseerders reeds voor sonop alles reggekry vir 'n vol sportdag. Onder helder sonstrale het 13 deelnemende skole van Laerskool Stellaland, Stella

Die skool het 'n verskeidenheid eet- en drinkgoed beskikbaar gehad, wat bygedra het tot die gesellige atmosfeer van die dag. Ten spyte van die weer, was die Makiti Sportdag 'n spoggeleentheid wat sportmangees en gemeenskapstrots laat vlamvat het.

Die o/8-netbalspannetjies van Moloposkole speel hulle beste spel teen Laerskool Stellaland.

Die aktiwiteite op die netbalbane het gesorg vir groot aksie.
